

SPECIAL FEATURES OF YIE:

- YIE envisages value-oriented education.
- Providing training for various teaching skills including skill of introducing the lesson, skill of stimulus variation, skill of reinforcement etc.
- Laying emphasis on the development of communication skills i.e. verbal and non-verbal skills.
- Special programmes are arranged for enhancing linguistic skills of listening, speaking, reading & writing.
- Encouraging Practice based learning.
- Celebrating various festivals and days for social and cultural development of prospective teachers.
- Well equipped library with more than 6000 books including latest educational journals, encyclopedia and reference books.
- Well established psychological, mathematical & science labs.
- Well Qualified and experienced faculty.
- Providing special training to prospective teachers for qualifying various eligibility tests like HTET, CTET etc. for better placements
- Maintaining guidance & counseling cell for providing career and emotional guidance to prospective teachers.
- Practice teaching programmes are developed in partnership, cooperatively involving nearby schools and YIE.

Dr. Neelam Dhamija (M.A., M.Ed., M.Phil. & Ph.D.- Education)
Principal - YIE

She possesses a work experience of twenty nine years in research, teaching and administration. She is having a brilliant record as an academican and researcher in the field of Education. She served Dept of Education, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra for twenty seven year and M.M college of Education. She shared her expert views as a member of Academic Council, Under graduate Board of Studies, Post graduate Board of Studies and member of Faculty of Kurukshetra University. She published two books and more than 35 research papers in reputed national journals.